

As soon as James, the greaser, sees that his hiding place is discovered, he attacks the Indian, and a terrible fight ensues. At last James, the greaser, is killed, but not before the Indian received a deadly stab wound. The Indian helps the cowboy queen upon his horse and brings her triumphantly back to camp, where he is thanked most heartily by the men and women.

Exhausted by the great loss of blood from the wound received at the hands of James, the greaser, the Indian drops dead, painfully mourned by his beloved friends.

There is great excitement in the house; everybody runs, everybody hurries, but nobody makes a noise. Suddenly the master of the house runs out of the house, upsetting everybody who comes in his way. His chase ends at the doctor's house. He gets the doctor out of bed, and pulls him along, followed by a big crowd.

In the meantime a new arrival has made his appearance. "A boy?" "Why, certainly it's a boy."
